BIG SENSATION SPRUNG. A Word of Advice

BENJAMIN FRIEDBURG ACCUSED OF ATTEMPTED BRIBERY.

Charges Made Against Him by Two Memhers of the Board of Education Who, Claim He Offered Them Money.

A fremendous sensation was created in Kansas City, Kas., last evening, when it was learned that two members of the board of education had made charges of attempted bribery against a well known chizen. The charges were made by Harry Bell, member of the board from the Sixth ward, and by William Fletcher, a member from the Fourth ward, and the accused was Mr. Benjamin Friedburg, president of the board of trade and owner of the Consolidated Electric Light works. The charges were made at an open meeting of the board of clucation.

After a few miscellaneous matters were were made at an open meeting of the beard of education.

After a few miscullaneous matters were disposed of, Mr. Bell areas and stated that he wished to call the attention of the beard to a matter in which it was vitally interested. He said that when the question of appointing a city superistendent was up for discussion recently the beard of traise of this city sent a committee to the beard of the city sent a committee to the beard of education and urged that the appointment be postponed. "Mr. Friedburg was opposed to the election of Superintendent Hanks," said he, "and he midde me an ofter of 425 if I would use my influence to have the election postponed. I told him that he could not buy me, and that night the superintendent whom Friedburg worked against was re-elected. Now, inasmuch as he is president of the beard of traise and that organization took a hand in the matter, I want a committee aspeciated to confer with the directors of the beard for our with the directors of the beard for our set in the directors of the beard of the conference with the directors of the bear and fire our he is president of the board of trade and that organization took a hand in the matter, I want a committee appointed to confer with the directors of that body and find out the meaning of it.

The assertion of Mr. Bell created a sensation among those present at the meeting, but the sensation increased when William Fletcher, a member from the Fourth ward, arose and stated that he had also been approached by Friedburg and offered $2 if he would use his influence to get the closuron of a superintendent postponed. Mr. Bell and Mr. Fletcher added more fuel to the flame by sating that each had made at affidavit setting out specifically when the attempt of bribery was made. The affidavits are now in the safe at the boar of education rooms. The affidavit of Mr. Bell reads as follows:

State of Kansas. Wyandotte county, ss. Harry Hell, or lawful age, being first dul sworn, according to law, upon cats say that he is the duly elected, qualified at acting member of the board of education of the says that he is the duly elected, qualified at acting member of the board of education of the says the says that he is the duly elected, qualified as acting member of the board of education of the says that he is the duly elected.

My commission expires April 21, 1897.
Mr. Fletcher's affiliavir contained the same statements, with the exceptions that the affiant stated that Friedburg approached him on Minnesota avenue about one week before the meeting was held a which the superintendent was elected. After the members of the board hall caush their breath each one took los turn about expressing the greatest surprise and indignation at the actions of the president of

The Marriage of Miss Anna Hill to Mr. Gurney-A Church Wins an Old Sult.

A quiet wedding took place last night at the residence of Jonathan Hill, North Liberry street. Miss Anna Hill was married to Mr. W. J. Gurney, of Kansas City. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. M. Hawkins, of Kansas City, an old friend of the bridal couple. But few friends were present to witness the happy event, owing to the fact that the parents of the bride were on the eve of their departure for their southern home at Los Angeles.

It was the desire of the young people that they be married at the old homestead. After the westing at $ octook Mr. and Mrs. Gurney took the Eastern express for Boston, where they will spend several weeks with the parents of the groom.

The bride has been prominent in the circles of the Marie Avenue M. E. church of this city. Mr. Gurney, the groom, formerly lived at Independence, but is now a resident of Kansas City. The friends of the young people will be pleased to know that they will make Independence their home. A quiet wedding took place last night at
